How does one write a farewell?

Christ is with us.

Leave-taking can seem like a stormy time – conflicting emotions, imminent change, stressful relational dynamics, and tiring work. In Mark 4: 35-40, Jesus left behind the crowds and rested while a storm brewed around him and the disciples.

On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side." And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?"

He rebuked them, yet they, like us, still had to learn faith is stronger than fear or loss. It is faith in the Faithful One that will sustain us. It is this powerful word of Christ that calms both the crowd and the threatening wind. "Peace! Be still!" are God's Word making us capable of bearing loss, fear, excitement, anticipation, comfort, discomfort, and anything else that God deems necessary for our growth and transformation. I firmly claim the promise that Christ's presence in the journey from one shore to the next is undeniably the source of Peace and can be counted on today and tomorrow.

I am so grateful for the presence of Christ with us during these past seven years. I want to thank all of you for the many ways you allowed me to be your pastor. As the years go by, I will look back with profound thankfulness on our adventure together in ministry and service; I trust the same will be true for you. I am forever blessed by the servant hearts in this place who have consistently persevered in serving the community and the local church. There are no words for the humbling and profound effect many of you have made on my life and ministry. The holy ground in which we've stood together in baptisms, confirmations of faith, weddings, funerals, family events, health issues, dreams, and disappointments is sacred; a means of God's grace poured out to us.

While I am leaving you to serve another congregation, there is one who remains constant: Jesus Christ. Jesus has been here from the beginning, and will be with you for the rest of time. If, through the power of the Holy Spirit, you allow Jesus to guide you, FUMC Rockport Congregation will always have a mission to make and grow disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

God continues on the journey ahead, just as surely as God traveled with Israel through the desert, was present in the uncertainty on the ark, and with Nehemiah and company rebuilding Jerusalem. And the leadership appointed to you for the next phase of the journey is certainly a part of God's next steps for this family of faith. I am confident in the gifts of Rev. Frank Baik and delight in how God will be working through him as your pastor.

Pray for him and his family, support them, offer them help as you are able, and work with them. I think that some of the words of instruction in the Baptismal Covenant are very appropriate for me to leave for you regarding them: Do all in your power to increase their faith, confirm their hope, and perfect them in love. Change is rarely easy and yet it does bring new opportunities to grow in faith and love. I relinquish all my pastoral responsibilities to him as I move to carry that role within another congregation. I pray you will celebrate the beauty of the itineracy that allows for many gifted pastors to share time within various congregations as God has led.

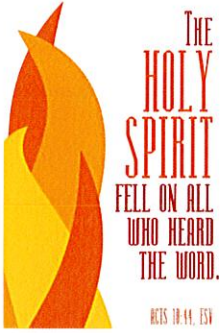

I will continue to hold you in my prayers. I praise God for every remembrance of you.

Peace in Christ,

Laura

Children's Ministries

Growing Families in Christ

Nursery Ministry: Can you help??

The nursery is in need of volunteers for Sunday services. You can volunteer weekly, twice a month, or even once a month. Whatever would work for you would help us out greatly. Volunteers are needed to sit with infants, talk to toddlers, and just keep an eye on the little ones so we can teach the Sunday school lesson to the children who can participate. Please see me in the nursery, leave a note for me in the childcare box in the front office, or contact me via email shereefumc@yahoo.com to volunteer on Sunday mornings.

As a childcare volunteer, you will play an impactful role in the children's church experience. You become their role model and encourage them to attend church in their future, because they will remember the great experience they had while they were younger. Your commitment and dedication will help the children to be successful in learning God's word by helping us create a minimally distracting environment, where the children can have fun, and feel God within them. We won't ask a lot. We just need a few volunteers to help show attention to the younger children while we provide a Godly, impactful lesson to those that are able to participate. Background Check and Safe Gatherings training is required for all volunteers who work with children at FUMC Rockport. To complete these required steps, please visit <https://riotexas.org/safesteps>

Thank You!

From the Director of First Learning Tree

As the 2019 school year comes to an end, we would like to congratulate our graduating class. Our graduates will be leaving us this fall, and starting their new journey to Kindergarten. At First Learning Tree we strive to educate every aspect of a child by developing the mind, body, and soul. The world says "it takes a village to raise a child", and the bible says "train up a child the way he should go, and when he gets old he will not depart from it" Proverbs 22:6. As these children walked the stage, they were tasked with the question of what they want to be when they grow up. We had responses of princesses, scientists, what will be a large police force, and even Santa Claus. These children have dreams and the confidence to follow them. That is due to the partnership of wonderful families, staff, and our church family. Please know that you have had a part in developing a successful workforce of the future. Thank you for the Bibles donated to our graduates. They will teach and cultivate the Word of God in our children. Keep them in your prayers as they embark on school and the future ahead of them. Here's to a wonderful summer!

God bless,
Madaline Brown,
First Learning Tree Director

UMARMY

The week of May 20th, 2019 UMARMY HOMEFRONT visited Rockport, and they were hosted by First Presbyterian and First United Methodist Churches. This UMARMY group consisted of college students from TCU, UT Austin, Texas State and A&M College Station. They accomplished a lot of great work during their week here. Projects included yard work for Myrtle; sorting, dumping, and organizing for Joyce; demoing the ceiling for a young family who just got a new roof and replacing with new drywall; painting at the parsonage; yard work for Barbara, and building a fence! Thank you, UMARMY HOMEFRONT, for being the hands and feet of Christ in Rockport, TX!

A Divine Appointment

Suzette Johnson, one of the UMARMY leaders, shared this story of a divine appointment that happened while the team was working. "A local man had a heart attack in his car. He jumped out for help and our students and our safety person who is a doctor rushed to assist. The doctor performed CPR, students prayed with his wife, then I went with her to the ER until he was stabilized. We have been told he has opened his eyes and squeezed his wife's hand. Please add the Brown family to your prayer list."

From our Future Pastor

Dear Rockport FUMC,

Our family is excited to be moving into the parsonage on June 27. I am looking forward to meeting many of you on the 30th as a visitor my first Sunday. I want to meet you and learn more about how things are done at Rockport. My prayer is that I would be able to bring fresh perspective to the great work you are already doing, and that my gifts will enhance what you already have. Don't expect radical changes the same month as your pastor changes, but do expect that some things will change in time.

One of the top three things that you as a church asked of the Bishop and DS was that the new pastor be able to understand the great trauma that Rockport suffered under Hurricane Harvey. I understand that life is defined by before and after Harvey. Everyone seems on edge around the sound of dripping. Some of you are just now moving back into your homes.

As an Army Reserve Chaplain I regularly work with people who have been scarred or traumatized. And I have counseled people as a Pastor on subjects of homelessness, abuse, and depression. I don't fully know your pain, I can't solve all your problems. (That's God's job). But I have a sense of what happened and the toll it has taken by your sharing. Thank you for being open and honest about the great suffering. I commit to listen to your stories and value your experience.

I haven't had to evacuate, return to nothing, and live in a camper for two years, but I too have been struggling with a house. Patty and I bought an investment house in Schulenburg just before Harvey hit, and have been working on it since. We took the 80+ year-old house down to the studs, and are still rebuilding. We recently turned on the water and are celebrating having a working toilet. So exciting!

I have been using skills that I first learned on mission trips, at Habitat for Humanity, and Volunteers In Mission. I was with the first Early Response Team after Harvey in La Grange, and the following week in Columbus. I have worked in Bastrop, Galveston, and Dulac, Louisiana after storm and fire.

I love mission work because I am gifted for it. I like helping people. Serving is natural for me. But more importantly, lending aid to a neighbor in Jesus name is one of the best ways to show them that God loves them. It tells them they are important to you. That you value them. When you represent the church, it says God remembers you. This body of believers cares for you.

When you serve someone in need, you don't have to look for an opportunity to share your faith. They ask you why you came. They say thank you, and open a door to sharing why they are so important to you. When they experience love, it gives credibility to the words, "God loves you. Jesus died for you." Those words in conjunction with our service gives them the feeling of being loved. Work in faith will speak the Gospel truth.

I believe that through the storm, and recovery, Rockport is poised to do incredible ministry to our neighbors and beyond. Enjoy getting back into your homes. Rest some after two hard years of labor. But as the need arises, expect to be called to mission. You are uniquely gifted to know the pain of loss. The hope of recovery. And the joy of restoration. God didn't give you all this experience in home repair for nothing. God has a purpose for you.

"... You are not your own; you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body."

1 Corinthians 6:19b-20 RSV

Preparing for our New Pastor

The Trustee's are eagerly awaiting the arrival of our new Pastor, Frank Baik. Our Committee along with the Welcoming Team are working on enhancing both our Church and the Parsonage to make them more inviting and welcoming. To accomplish these goals, we are asking for the support of this Congregation. We are seeking volunteers to assist us in "sprucing up the Parsonage". A sign up sheet is posted at the Reception Desk. Please sign your name in the "Name" box and under that box are several tasks that need to be completed. Mark an X in the box of the task that you would like to work on. Our work days will be June 22 and possibly the 23rd and 24th. We appreciate your help in beautifying our Church Home.
